St. James's, March 2.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Merchants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable the Earl Bathurſt, Recorder of the ſaid Town: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Merchants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, at the Guildhall aſſembled, the Sixteenth Day of February, 1784.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, at a General Meeting publickly convened, impelled by Motives of Duty and Loyalty, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Aſſurances of our warm Affection for your Royal Perſon, and zealous Attachment to the free Conſtitution of this Country.

We could not but behold with the utmoſt Abhorrence the late violent and daring Attack upon the Chartered Rights of the Eaſt India Company, in a Bill, which if paſſed into a Law would have created a new Power, derogatory to the Dignity and Right of your Majeſty's Crown, injurious to the Commerce of the Nation, and the Security of Public Credit. We ſincerely rejoice in the Defeat of this Bill by the Wiſdom and Integrity of the Houſe of Lords.

Permit us therefore, Sire, with Hearts glowing with Zeal and Gratitude, to render your Majeſty our hearty Thanks for the Diſmiſſion of the late Miniſtry, by whom this daring and dangerous Bill was urged and ſupported; and for calling up to the Adminiſtration of Public Affairs the preſent Miniſtry, in whoſe Integrity and Abilities we have the higheſt Confidence, and who, we truſt, will purſue ſuch Meaſures as will add to your Majeſty's Happineſs, and promote the Welfare and Proſperity of your People.

Under a juſt Senſe of the Value of our excellent Conſtitution, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready, to the utmoſt of our Power, to ſupport the legal Exerciſe of your Majeſty's Prerogatives, in ſuch Manner as may, in your Majeſty's Wiſdom, be found neceſſary, for defeating the Attempts of a Faction, and to promote Firmneſs and Stability to your Majeſty's Government, and Security to the Rights of your People.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Daventre, has been preſented to the King by Lucy Knightley, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Northampton, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Daventre, in the County of Northampton, at a Meeting publickly convened in the Town Hall, the Twenty-eighth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects of the Borough of Daventre, deeply affected by the preſent alarming Situation of Publick Affairs, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our humble and warmeſt Acknowledgments of Gratitude for the Diſmiſſion of your late Miniſters, and for your calling thoſe Perſons to your Aſſiſtance, whoſe Intégrity and Abilities bid fair to reſtore this once glorious but now diſtracted Empire, to its former Splendor and Greatneſs.

We obſerve, with Concern, Men exerciſing great Talents, for the avowed Purpoſe of Oppoſition, and ſome few Individuals of independent and fair Character, miſled ſo far as (inſtead of exerting their Endeavours to promote the Public Good) to make and concur in an Attempt, by framing Reſolution after Reſolution, and at laſt protracting and withholding the Supplies, to impede the neceſſary Exigencies of the State, and to compel the Removal of thoſe Perſons from your Service, againſt whom no ſpecific Charge, nor even fair Suſpicion, either of Inability or Miſconduct, has been alledged, and in whom the Nation at large have an entire Confidence; and that for no other Purpoſe than to replace in their Stead, Perſons whoſe late Diſmiſſion from your Majeſty's Service, claims, and has ſecured to your Majeſty, the Gratitude and Affection of a loyal and free People.

We do therefore pledge ourſelves to your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport your Majeſty in ſuch further conſtitutional Exertions of your Royal Prerogative, as the Conduct of the preſent ſeemingly otherwiſe indiſſoluble Band of Men, may render neceſſary.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmeſt Expreſſions of Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

We could not behold, but with Aſtoniſhment and Concern, the Meaſures which were purſuing to deprive the India Company of their Chartered Privileges; Meaſures calculated to gratify Ambition, and impreſs Horror upon the Minds of all other your Majeſty's Chartered Subjects; and we rejoice that, by a timely Interpoſition of the Houſe of Lords, the Security of Charters are yet preſerved.

We are truly concerned for the Welfare and Intereſts of the Kingdom, over which your Majeſty preſides, and therefore lament the unhappy Diſputes at this Time prevailing in the Houſe of Commons; and ſincerely hope the Period is not far diſtant, when Harmony ſhall be reſtored, and the Buſineſs and true Intereſts of the Nation, promoted by every Individual.

We have Confidence in the Abilities and Integrity of your Majeſty's preſent Miniſters, and cannot but hope they may be the Inſtruments of promoting the Honor and Welfare of the Kingdom.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants, Freeholders and Inhabitants in general, of the Town and Borough of Wareham in the County of Dorſet, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants, Freeholders and Inhabitants in general of your antient and loyal Town and Borough of Wareham, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty our ſincere Expreſſions of Gratitude for the Diſmiſſion of the late Adminiſtration, deeming it our indiſpenſable Duty to your Majeſty, in the preſent Situation of Affairs, thus publicly to teſtify our entire Approbation of that Event.

And we feel ourſelves impreſſed with the higheſt Degree of Gratitude to your Majeſty for this Exertion of the juſt and undoubted Prerogatives of your Crown, in ſupporting the Rights of your People.

Though we ſincerely join with the Reſt of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects in deeply lamenting the unhappy Diviſions which obſtruct and retard the Public Buſineſs, we have no Doubt but the Integrity of your Majeſty's preſent Miniſters, and the Support of your People, will tend effectually to preſerve your Majeſty's Prerogatives, and maintain the Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed at the glorious Revolution.

We cannot conclude theſe Sentiments of our Duty and Loyalty, without expreſſing our moſt hearty and fervent Wiſhes, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long, happy, and proſperous over a free and happy People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty in the preſent alarming State of public Affairs.

We ſincerely acknowledge the Wiſdom of our happy Conſtitution, which places in your Majeſty's Hands the undoubted Authority of appointing to all the great Offices of executive Government. We have the firmeſt Reliance on your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Concern for your People, that you will always be anxious to call into, or continue in your Service, Men the moſt deſerving of the Confidence of our Country.

We alſo preſume to hope, that your Majeſty will continue to exert your legal Prerogative of diſſolving your Parliament, whenever ſuch an Exertion of it may be thought neceſſary, for the Good of the Publick and the Preſervation of the Conſtitution.

In this Confidence we deſire to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will as far as in us lies, on all Occaſions, ſupport your Majeſty in the juſt Exerciſe of thoſe Prerogatives, which the Wiſdom of the Law has intruſted to your Majeſty for the Preſervation of our Lives and Properties, and upon the due and uninterrupted Exerciſe of which muſt, in a great Meaſure, depend the Bleſſings we and our Fellow Subjects derive from the leaſt imperfect of all poſſible Governments.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto ſet our Names, and affixed the Seal of the ſaid Borough, this Twenty-third Day of February, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants, Traders, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the City of Glaſgow, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable the Marqueſs of Graham, being being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants, Traders, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the City of Glaſgow.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Traders, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the City of Glaſgow, hereunto ſubſcribing, think it our Duty, in the preſent critical Situation of Public Affairs, to aſſure your Majeſty of our warmeſt Attachment to your Perſon and Government.

We revere the Conſtitution of Great Britain, as it was ſettled at the Revolution, by which the Prerogatives of the Crown, together with the Rights and Privileges of the Nobles and People, were mutually aſcertained; and we reprobate every Attempt to innovate a Government ſo happily balanced. We ſincerely lament thoſe unhappy Diviſions which have too long impeded the National Buſineſs; but we truſt that the Violence of Party will ere long ſubſide, and that the Rights of all your Subjects, together with the juſt Prerogatives of the Crown, will remain unimpaired.

Having full Confidence in your Majeſty's gracious Aſſurances, that your conſtant Study in the Exerciſe of every Prerogative, by the Wiſdom of the Law intruſted to your Majeſty, is to employ it for the Welfare of your Subjects; and holding every Branch of the Legiſlature equally ſacred, and equally eſſential to our Safety, Liberty and Proſperity, and to the Continuance of our happy Conſtitution, we are firmly reſolved to the utmoſt of our Power to ſupport and defend your Majeſty in the juſt Exerciſe of thoſe Prerogatives, which we conſider as inſeparably connected with the Rights and Privileges of the People.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Common Council of the Borough of Dumfries, has been preſented to the King by Sir Robert Laurie, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for the Shire of Dumfries, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Common Council of the Borough of Dumfries.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

ANIMATED by the moſt loyal Diſpoſitions, and the moſt ſincere Wiſhes for the Preſervation of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, we beg Leave, in the preſent critical Conjuncture of Affairs, to approach your Majeſty, and to offer our moſt grateful Acknowledgements for that paternal Care which your Majeſty has ever ſhewn for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, and the tender Regard which you have ever manifeſted for happy Conſtitution.

It has, for ſome Time paſt, excited our moſt ſerious Apprehenſions, to ſee a violent and dangerous Faction daring to uſurp new Powers in the State, and attempting to encroach upon your Majeſty's juſt and well known Prerogatives.

It was with Pleaſure we lately ſaw the Leaders of of ſuch a Faction diſmiſſed from your Majeſty's Councils; and that, in the pure and legal Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative, your Majeſty has made Choice of Miniſters more deſerving your Confidence, a Choice ſo conſonant to the Wiſhes of your People.

It is with much Concern that we ſtill ſee the neceſſary public Buſineſs impeded by a Set of Men, whoſe Struggle appears to be not ſo much for the Good of the State, as to proceed from a Deſire of Power and the moſt ſelf intereſted Motives; but we truſt that the Steadineſs of your Majeſty and your Miniſters, and the Continuance of your Majeſty's Exertion of the legal Prerogatives of your Crown, will ſoon put an End to the preſent Diſtractions, and reſtore Peace and Harmony to every Branch of the Legiſlature.

To promote and ſupport ſuch deſirable Meaſures, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, we will not be wanting in the Uſe of every legal Mean which Providence has put in our Power.

And that your Majeſty may long continue to reign, as you have hitherto done, in the hearts of a free, grateful, and happy People, is the very ſincere Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Common Council of Dumfries.

Subſcribed by the Provoſt of the Borough, by our Appointment; and we have ordered our Common Seal to be hereunto appended.

David Blair, Provoſt.

The following Addreſſes from Dumfermline, Innerkeithing, Queensferry, and Stirling, have been preſented to the King by Major James Campbell, Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Boroughs, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of Dunfermline.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of Dunfermline, beg Leave, in the preſent critical and alarming Situation of public Affairs, humbly to approach the Throne, and give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government, and teſtify our Approbation of that Conſtitutional Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative, by which you have removed from your Service Men in whom you could no longer confide, and who, by Means which to us appear unjuſtifiable, were endeavouring to eſtabliſh themſelves in a Degree of Power and Influence, dangerous both to the Prerogative of the Crown and the Liberty of the Subject.

Whilſt, with deep Concern, we view the diſtracted State of the Britiſh Senate, and lament its baneful Influence on the Buſineſs of the Nation, we promiſe your Majeſty the firmeſt Support in our Power, in your conſtitutional Endeavours to maintain inviolated that juſt Equilibrium between the different Branches of the Legiſlature, ſo neceſſary to the Stability of Government, and Permanency of the

Britiſh

British Conſtitution, in the Preſervation of which the Glory of your Majeſty's Reign and the Happineſs of your People are inſeparably connected. This ſigned in our Preſence, in Name and by Order of the Whole, and the Seal of Burgh is alſo hereunto affixed, at Dunfermline, the Thirteenth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty four years, by John Wilſon, Provoſt.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Innerkeithing.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Innerkeithing, in Council aſſembled, impreſſed with Sentiments of Loyalty and good Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, and ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under our excellent Conſtitution, cannot but expreſs our Concern for its Safety and Permanence, and our Abhorrence of all Attempts to the Prejudice thereof.

At a Time when Peace is happily reſtored, and we have nothing to fear from Foreign Enemies, we are ſorry that the public Tranquillity ſhould be diſturbed, and the National Buſineſs interrupted, by the late unhappy Differences among the Repreſentatives of the People. We wiſh that Men of great Abilities and Influence, inſtead of contending for Power, would employ their Talents in promoting the Arts of Peace, encouraging Induſtry, Navigation and Trade, and repairing the Calamities of War.

We approve of your Majeſty's Choice of Miniſters, and hope they will concur with your Majeſty in promoting the public Good. We are perſuaded that their eminent Virtues, which have recommended them to your Majeſty's Favour, will ſecure to them the Confidence of People, to the Diſappointment of the ambitious Views of factious Men.

We earneſtly pray that your Majeſty, under the Protection of Heaven, may be long preſerved as a Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms, and continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, a loyal, and a happy People.

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Name, by Will. Currie, P.

Innerkeithing, February 19, 1784.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of your Royal Borough of Queensferry, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave, with becoming Reſpect and Affection, to approach your Majeſty's Throne, in the preſent critical and alarming Situation of public Affairs, and to join our Fellow-Subjects in aſſuring your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Perſon, Family, and Government.

Totally unconnected with all Party Men, and uninfluenced by their Sentiments, we have only to expreſs our humble, though anxious Hope, that, through the Bleſſing of Him who alone can bring Good out of Evil, your Majeſty, with the Aſſiſtance of a wiſe, a diſintereſted, and an efficient Miniſtry, equally poſſeſſing your Majeſty's Confidence and that of your People, will ſoon be able to reſtore internal Peace and Concord to this much injured Nation.

That this happy Event may be ſpeedily brought about is our moſt fervent Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and at our Deſire, by our Chief Magiſtrate, the Seal of the Borough being alſo hereto affixed, at Queensferry, this Twenty-third of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four Years.

Geo. M'Callum.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with a deep Senſe of Gratitude to your Majeſty for the mild and prudent Exerciſe of the Royal Prerogative upon all Occaſions, and the Duty we owe to your Majeſty for that and your paternal Care of the Rights and Intereſts of the Subject, uniformly obſerved through the Whole of your Majeſty's Reign; We, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of your ancient Borough of Stirling, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave, with Humility and Loyalty, to approach the Throne upon the preſent Situation of Publick Affairs, and in the warmeſt Manner, to aſſert the Rights of the Royal Prerogative, and free Exerciſe thereof; and that your Majeſty's conſtitutional Powers of a free Choice of your Miniſters, and the diſſolving of Parliament, when at any Time ſuch Step appears neceſſary to the Royal Wiſdom, are not to be attempted to be reſtrained by any Set of Men, under Pretence of the Powers of another Department of State, or under Pretence that Miniſters do not poſſeſs the Confidence of the Houſe of Commons, for your Majeſty's Choice entitles them to the Confidence of that Houſe, and of the People at large, while they draw not upon themſelves Suſpicions from any Acts of Mal-Adminiſtration.

In our moſt excellent Conſtitution, the Prerogative of the Crown, and the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, are wiſely balanced and well ſecured; any Attempt therefore upon the Prerogative would be unjuſt in itſelf, and detrimental to the whole Frame of the Conſtitution.

Permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to declare our firm Reſolution to ſupport the conſtitutional Powers of the Crown, and the Honour and Dignity of your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government, and our ardent Wiſhes that your Majeſty may long and happily reign over a free and loyal People.

Subſcribed by our Appointment, and in our Preſence, at Stirling, the Eighteenth Day of February, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four Years, by James Moir, Eſq; Provoſt of the Borough, and Præſes of Council.

James Moir.
